Registration is required for all programs unless otherwise noted.

Film Screening: That Kid

Tuesday, January 13 at 6:30pm

THAT KID tells the story of a young, gifted Black boy from Nyack Plaza named James. All of his elders do their darndest to help him prepare for life in a system that is predicated on his exploitation rather than designed for his success.

In our culture, a person or community's monetary wealth is frequently mistaken for their real value as human beings.

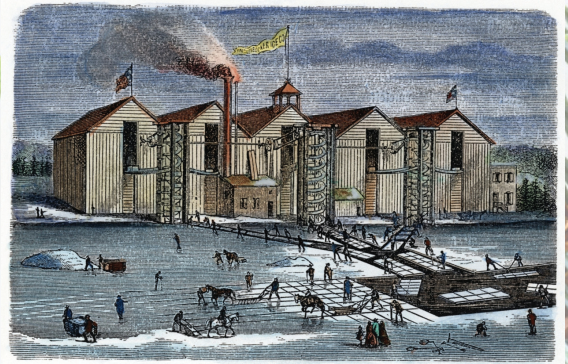

Many people probably think about the residents of Nyack Plaza in terms of what they don't have. Ashley Dawson's fictional debut THAT KID shows us something else, on both sides of the camera. It is a community creation embodying the kind of value which cannot be bought with money (or entirely displaced through eminent domain, either!).

After the film, stay for a discussion with filmmakers Ashley Dawson and Brooklyn Demme.

Writer, Director, Executive Producer: Ashley Dawson, Producer, Cinematographer, Editor: Brooklyn Demme,

Co-Producer: Norris Spotted War Turtle Branham

Registration required.

Timothy Englert: History of Knickerbocker Ice Festival at Rockland Lake

Thursday, January 15 at 6:30pm

Timothy Englert's fascination with ice began when he decided to make a log bench for the ruins of the Knickerbocker Ice Houses, thus creating the Knickerbocker Bench, found along trails throughout the Hudson Valley and beyond.

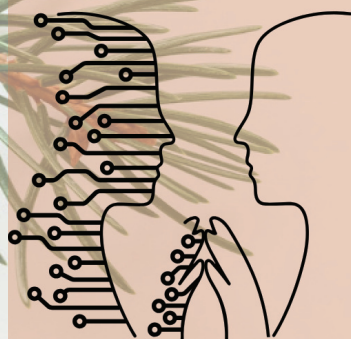

He co-founded the Knickerbocker Ice Festival at Rockland Lake with the late Valley Cottage resident and ice sculptor Robert Patalano, in whose memory the festival will return on the weekend of January 22nd-24th, with teams of ice sculptors creating huge sculptures along the banks of the lake. He will discuss the genesis of the ice industry at Rockland Lake, and of the global impact that it had for close to 50 years. He will also discuss the mission of The Kinship of Ice, a charity that he and Mr. Patalano created last year to preserve, interpret, and celebrate the unique ice history of Rockland Lake. Registration required.

The Good, the Bad, and the Scary of AI

Wednesday, January 7 at 6:30pm

A discussion on morals, values, and ethics associated with AI and its ramifications on society as well as a discussion on the scams, deepfakes, job displacement, and intellectual property implications of AI. Registration required.

Presented by Eddi Khaytman, Web Developer and AI consultant.

TECH TUESDAYS

2:00-4:00pm

We are now offering a drop-in technology assistance program! Beginning in January, drop into the Glass Room Tuesdays between 2:00-4:00pm for assistance with personal tech devices. We will do our best to assist you in using apps, software, and devices. This is intended for quick questions and fixes; staff is NOT able to diagnose computer problems or generate content for a user.

Due to a scheduling conflict, Tech Tuesday will not be offered February 10.

SNAP Application Help and Information

Friday, January 23, 10:00am – 1:30pm in the Gallery

SNAP, formerly known as food stamps, helps millions of New Yorkers buy the food they need to stay healthy. Jillian O'Donohoe, NOEP Coordinator at CCCSR, will be available to explain how the program works, how eligibility is determined, and what the process of applying is like. She will be available to assess individuals' and families' eligibility and schedule appointments to go through the application process with anyone interested.

New Year, New Cheese

Thursday, February 5 at 6:30pm

New year, new habits and one very delicious resolution: try new cheese. This guided tasting invites you to expand your palate and discover styles you may not have reached for before. Guests will sample five artisan cheeses, learning what makes each one special and how to enjoy them at home with confidence. The class is led by Jessica Kesselman, ACS CCP, Scott & Joe's Educator-in-Residence. Jessica is a Certified Cheese Professional by the American Cheese Society and brings years of experience as a cheese educator, beginning her career behind the counter at Murray's Cheese and later teaching and leading tastings for audiences of all levels. Her approach is warm, informative, and welcoming to beginners and enthusiasts alike. No prior cheese knowledge required, just curiosity and an appetite for something new. Registration is required.

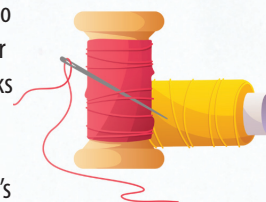

Mending Workshop

Thursday, March 19 at 6:30pm

Are you tired of throwing away clothes that have small holes or other damage? Learn how to repair them instead! Join us to learn some basic repairs for holes, rips and tears to your favorite clothing while also learning how to make art out of these imperfections.

Heather Yarrington started learning how to sew at age 3 and never stopped. Heather works on personal projects, assists with the New York Renaissance Faire's costume department, attends FIT's Precollege and Continuing Education programs, and owns a custom clothing business. Registration required.

The Complete Modern Pantry* by America's Test Kitchen

Monday, January 26 at 7:00pm

Flexibility should be in every cook's arsenal—sometimes you can't always get to the supermarket. This invaluable cooking resource from America's Test Kitchen shows cooks how to make use of their pantry by thinking in categories. The recipe is the blueprint—you focus on what the ingredients do, not just what they are.

Yassou* by Shaily Lipa

Monday, March 2 at 7:00pm

Greek food, born of the land where sun meets sea, is built on the delicious, healthy pillars of abundant fresh vegetables and fish, olive oil, whole grains, legumes, artisanal cheeses, and fruit—accompanied by an occasional glass of wine. This food's everlasting appeal is captured in the recipes and gorgeous photographs of Yassou, inspired by the spirit of the word used to greet a loved one or a friend, perhaps when inviting them to share a bite.

THE BOOK AND PUB CLUB

Select Tuesdays at 7:00pm

Join librarians Katie and Megan in local bars and restaurants for book discussions over food and drinks. For participants 21+.

January 20: Twist by Colum McCann at The Burger Loft, 3 N Broadway, Nyack

Resoundingly simple and turbulent at the same time, Twist is a meditation on the nature of narrative and truth from one of the great storytellers of our times.

February 17: The Dark Maestro by Brendan Slocumb at Prohibition River, 82 Main St, Nyack

A propulsive and moving story about sacrifice, loyalty, and the indomitable human spirit, The Dark Maestro is Brendan Slocumb at the height of his powers.

March 24: Atmosphere by Taylor Jenkins Reid at The Burger Loft, 3 N Broadway, Nyack

Fast-paced, thrilling, and emotional, Atmosphere is Taylor Jenkins Reid at her best: transporting readers to iconic times and places, creating complex protagonists, and telling a passionate and soaring story about the transformative power of love—this time among the stars.

Beyond the Book: A Biography Club

Select Tuesdays at 2:30pm

The Beyond the Book Club is a biographies and memoirs club where we will explore the stories of artists, the lives they led, and the art they created. This quarter, we will continue reading about the lives of cooks, chefs, and food professionals. This will be led by librarian Analisa. For more information, email Analisa at acaso@rcls.org

January 13: Taste: My Life Through Food by Stanley Tucci

Written with Stanley's signature wry humor, Taste is for fans of Bill Buford, Gabrielle Hamilton, and Ruth Reichl—and anyone who knows the power of a home-cooked meal.

February 10: The Cooking Gene: A Journey through African-American Culinary History in the Old South by Michael W. Twitty

A James Beard Award-winning memoir of Southern cuisine and food culture tracing one man's ancestry through food, from Africa to America and from slavery to freedom.

March 10: Finding Freedom: A Cook's Story Remaking a Life from Scratch by Erin French
Erin reveals the passion and courage needed to invent oneself anew, and the poignant, timeless connections between food and generosity, renewal and freedom.

VALLEY COTTAGE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

You are invited to our annual Association meeting scheduled for January 21, 2026 at 7:30pm.

As an association library, we are a not-for-profit educational corporation supported by the public and administered by a seven-member Board of Trustees. Each year one or two trustees' 5-year terms end at which time the incumbent can run again, and an eligible association member can also apply. An eligible association member is any registered voter residing in Valley Cottage. At this time, two seats are open for election; nominations will be posted on the library website following the December 31, 2025 deadline. At this meeting Association members will also vote to approve the proposed operating budget.

BUDGET VOTE

The library's budget vote will take place Tuesday, February 10, 2026 from 10am-9pm. The public will be asked to vote on a modest increase for both the Nyack and Valley Cottage Library's budgets. A joint budget information session will take place on Tuesday, February 3, 2026 at 7:00pm at the Nyack Library. All eligible voters in the Nyack School District are eligible to vote. As someone invested in the Library's future we hope you'll cast your vote. If you are unsure of your poll location, please call the Valley Cottage Library at 845-268-7700 or Nyack Library at 845-358-3370 x 218.
